

May 16, 2013

Travel/Tournament Team Participation Policy

Players registered with Southwest Ball Hockey both currently and from the most recently finished session, are not permitted to play for any outside, non-Southwest Ball Hockey, ball hockey travel teams. Players that choose to participate for other travel/tournament teams and their parents/legal guardians will be subject to expulsion for a minimum of one year and longer if the Board of Directors sees fit. Expulsion will result in that player and parents/legal guardians not being permitted to attend any Southwest Ball Hockey sanctioned event, including all games, practices, banquets, and not being allowed at SWBH rink for the length of the expulsion. After the expulsion period has ended, the player may request reinstatement in writing to the Board. Exception: Players who have tried out for Southwest Ball Hockey travel/tournament teams and were not selected may choose to play for another travel/tournament team.